

Cost efficient offshore wind logistics
The role of ports in a lean supply chain for offshore wind

8 September 2016
Hotel Andromeda, Oostende, Belgium

Accommodation

You can find herewith some suggestions for hotels:

Hotel Bero  (20 rooms under option) - www.hotelbero.com

Eco Room - single bed - 120.00 Euro per room per night + 2.12 citytax (breakfast included)

Eco Room – double bed - 145.00 Euro per room per night + 2.12 citytax (breakfast included)

Hotel Mercure  (10 rooms under option) <http://www.mercure.com/nl/hotel-A159-hotel-mercure-oostende/index.shtml>

Room - single bed - 109.00 Euro per room per night + 2.12 citytax (breakfast included)

Hotel Leopold * (20 rooms under option) <http://leopoldhotelostend.com/>

(18) Cosy Rooms - single bed - 89.00 Euro per room per night + 2.12 citytax (breakfast included)

(2) Deluxe Rooms - single bed - 99.00 Euro per room per night + 2.12 citytax (breakfast included)

Other options for hotels might be:

Hotel Thermae: <http://www.thermaepalace.be/en/>

Hotel Access: <http://www.hotelacces.be/>

For any issue with finding hotels, please get directly in touch with:

Yasmina Arab

International sales & marketing manager Toerisme Oostende

T. +32.59.255.317

Mail: y.arab@toerisme-oostende.be

About leanwind

leanwind is a 4-year project that started in December 2013. Its primary objective is to provide cost reductions across the offshore wind farm lifecycle and supply chain through the application of lean principles and the development of state of the art technologies and tools.

The leanwind project has received funding from the European Union's Seventh Programme for research, technological development and demonstration under grant agreement No. 614020.